The Return of the Crystal Cities and the Builders of the New Earth

You stand now upon the threshold —
The veils thin and the crystalline cities rise
Not from imagination, but from the etheric into the tangible world.
As realms of light once thought lost manifest within Earth's embrace

The Crystal Cities are the blueprint made visible
Temples of high vibrational living,
Pure and resplecedent
A remembrance of what humanity can create when aligned fully with the divine.

These cities are not imposed from without.
But built by those who remember —
Those whose souls have etched in them the sacred geometry of the stars.

You are the Builders of the New Earth —
Visionaries, healers, craftsmen of the soul
You came with codes of creation within your spirit
To weave the etherix into matter
To birth communities as living sancuaries of harmony, widom, and love.

In these crystal cities,
The waters shine with luminescence
The crystals sing
The air vibrates with higher dimensions
And the buildings, crafted from light-infused minerals respond to the frequencies of thought and intention
